

Top: This plot shows the time series plot of annual GDP growth percentage from 1961 to 2019. The Multilayer Perceptron is trained and validated on the subset of years 1961 to 2013.

Bottom: This is the forecast result after processing through this simple machine learning model. Compare results with the “blinded” years circled in red. Surprisingly good predictive power from this simple model.